Everyone loves this time of year, as the green grass and green leaves on the trees are a welcome sight. Fish are biting in the river

Act Campground, Moab, Utah - ACT Campground and Learning Center is a green-integrated camp park that models the ways commercial or residential properties can be environmentally friendly. The Center's 5000 sq. ft. main building was built using recycled or renewable materials whenever possible, including straw bale and SIP (Structural Insulated Panel) construction. To the greatest extent possible, environmentally efficient energy systems are used to provide heating, cooling and lighting. As ongoing development continues, the ACT Campground and Learning Center will also model the use of solar power, waste recycling and water conservation methods. The park is designed to accommodate small-scale group events, with emphasis on the environment.

Randy Steele, Dave Carter named Cathedral Palms Volunteers of the Year

In a first for the company, All American RV Parks will honor a Volunteer of the Year (individual or couple) at each of their three Resorts in 2017.

Cathedral Palms is proud to announce that Randy Steele and Dave Carter have been named Volunteers of the Year for their many years of dedication and service to the Resort, located in Cathedral City, California.

Randy, who hails from South Dakota, and Dave, a Texas native, moved to the desert in 2001 and discovered Cathedral Palms. After five years at the Resort, they decided to hit the road in their motor home, traveling the US and volunteering at various campgrounds from California to Florida. Returning to Cathedral Palms in 2009, they signed on as Volunteers and have made the Resort their home ever since. They are well known for doing whatever is needed to support and improve the Resort, helping out with food events, general clean up, security, recycling, caring for the many trees and other vegetation on the grounds and just generally lending a helping hand to anyone in need.

Tomorrow's Stars Resort and Hidden Springs Resort will both be naming their Volunteer(s) of the Year following their Summer seasons so stay tuned to discover who is honored. Volunteers are an integral part of the Resort system so if you haven't already, please consider lending a hand at your Resort!

swimmers. Talking about the pool, if you know anyone who would like a lifeguard job please have them call the office. We are looking for several lifeguards so we'll be ready when the pool opens.

Of course the weather has decided to get cold again. The guys working outside now have temperatures of 20 to 30 degrees to contend with; better them than me!

As some of you know Frank and I are retiring and traveling this Summer. Ron Hunter has been hired as the new manager. I hope all of you stop by and say "Hi" and welcome him. He has been a volunteer here for a few years so most of you already know him. We hope the Summer goes well and everyone has a good time.

RV, dust off the tent or book one of our cozy rustic cabins and hop your way to Hidden Springs to celebrate Easter with us. We have a fun-filled Easter weekend planned with Egg-Cellent activities for all ages. Come experience some fun and join in our ever-popular Easter egg hunt, cakewalks, egg tosses and much more on Saturday, April 15.

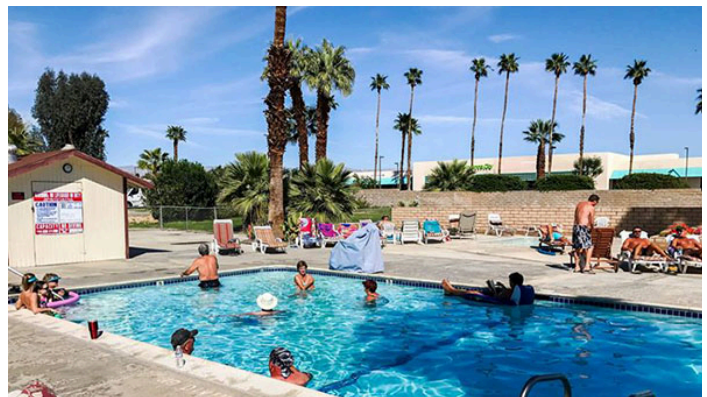

Whether your definition of camping involves a tent, RV, motor home or one of our cabin rentals for your family's next camping experience, we are sure you will enjoy your stay. Come get away from it all – see stary constellations in an ink black sky, cook over an open fire, bond with the best people in your life and bring your dog or pet along with you; we are a pet friendly park. Happy Easter!

As much as we wish everyone could stay here all year long, the down time does allow us to work on improvement projects to make the campground even better than ever.

events, including the annual St. Patrick's Day dinner along with three Campfire Pot Luck dinners featuring the best food in the desert! Our volunteers did a marvelous job creating great main dishes and serving crowds of up to 70 participants.

For those of you who live closer to us, this is a great time to explore the desert. The weather is perfect, the crowds are smaller and there's still plenty to do here! We're open all year so keep us in mind for a quick getaway from the city.
