Gathering of Friends just prior to Christmas Day. Sure enough, many of our campers who are staying throughout December responded positively to that idea.

So, we're planning to get a group together for Food, Friends and Fun. Specifics remain to be determined so stay tuned to our Facebook page Have a Very Merry Christmas!

Paulette, our outgoing Manager, introduced the Colemans to the Members at the Manager's Meeting on Saturday, December 4. Not to worry, Paulette isn't going anywhere! She's staying on to keep our many activities and food events going strong, just as she always has done.

Bob and Michelle come to us with fresh energy and new ideas to continue the great service for which members and guests of Cathedral Palms are known. We're all looking forward to the future as the they put volunteers gave out goodie bags to more than 300 kids. That's a lot of work and I'm sure the kids really loved it.

Now that we've officially entered the off season, enhancements to the park are underway.

Two tent sites have been created near the cabins and pond areas and construction is underway on a bathhouse to serve these new sites.

Additionally, staff members have begun installing concrete pads for each site.

Stay tuned to social media for continuous updates to our park as we strive to make your experience at Hidden Springs a most memorable one.

Major remodel of the Clubhouse is well underway

enhancing the camping experience by focusing on creative themes that cater to a wide variety of interests. While the campers eagerly await the unveiling of these exciting new themes, there's another buzz of excitement surrounding the Winter activities at the campground. Instead of hibernating during the colder months, the campground team is hard at work renovating the clubhouse and kitchen facilities.

that complements the natural beauty of the surroundings and fosters a sense of community among campers.

As the temperature drops and Winter takes hold, the camping community is eagerly looking forward to the warmer months when they can once again gather under the open sky. With fresh themes on the horizon and a renovated clubhouse in the works, the anticipation for the next camping season is building. Campers are ready to embrace the adventures that await, with the promise of new memories and experiences in the great outdoors.
