This season just keeps getting better and better, with record numbers of RVers choosing to spend time here and participate in all of the fun!

If you're keeping up with our Facebook page (the link is on the AARVParks.com website) you'll see that we're enjoying a busy season with record turnouts for events. Last month, our biggest turnout to date brought 90 hungry campers to one of the Saturday night campfires, featuring free pizza courtesy of Mike Thompson's RV Superstores.

In addition, we've been adding new streetlights for nighttime safety and generally continuing to renovate and maintain the campground.

As more and more RVers discover Cathedral Palms, more and more are making the smart move to join as members. Ken Hoel arrived in It's February and that means it's time for Mardi Gras and Valentine's Day!

We invite you to come enjoy the leisure of camping alongside the peaceful Bogue Chitto River where family camping is Number One. Join us for a night if you are just passing through, for a week of family fun, for the Winter season to escape the chilly northern temperatures or for a Summer vacation.

Wild turkeys

At Hidden Springs Resort, campers enjoy watching the deer, turkey and squirrels roam our park as well as watching the bald eagle soaring over the river. Fishing in the river is good this time of year and is one of those classic outdoor activities that goes with camping like marshmallows go with graham crackers and chocolate. After enjoying a day at some of our

The new year has gotten off to a cold start.

We've had below zero wind chills, snow, blowing and drifting snow and more cold. Winter has finally arrived with a vengeance. We knew the good weather was not going to last the whole Winter. January, February and March are the coldest months of the year; every time Frank gets the roads clear the winds blow the snow right back. I had one of our Winter campers tell me his camper was -5° one morning; needless to say he has gone to a motel. Just as Winter camping has its pluses, there are some challenges as well!

Lots of snow this season

We keep telling ourselves Spring is just around the corner. Some of you

Happy Valentine's Day!

Free pizza really brings out the crowd! With Ken Absher and Brent Lee entertaining, this was a record night, with 90 campers devouring 23 pizzas.

January and will remain through March in order to chat with folks and help them decide to take advantage of the many perks of membership.

One of our new food events is Dollar Dogs every Friday at noon. For just $1 per dog, each, hungry campers are served a smoked sausage hot off the BBQ grill, a toasted bun, baked beans and all of those great toppings that make for a great lunch.

AARV Member Ken Absher has often entertained at various events here and this season he has been joined by Brent Lee, a professional singer/songwriter from Canada who takes his show on the road, traveling by motorhome. Brent just happened to stop by for an RV site one day, met Ken and the two played guitar together
