One would assume that during the hot Summer months here, there would not be much to do in the desert.

Not true! While the pace slows and the traffic all but disappears, Palm Springs and the surrounding areas have made a concerted effort to entice visits during our 'slow' season.

Case in point, Restaurant Week is the perfect time to visit your favorite restaurant or try something new, as chefs prepare delicious 3 course meals for your dining pleasure, priced at $26 or $38. This year, over 100 local restaurants are participating, making the event, which lasts through June 7, a great opportunity for the frugal gourmet to enjoy the best food in the valley.

Gourmet meals for the frugal!

May was full of crawfish boils, wagon trains, canoe trips, birthday celebrations and fun in the sun and pools.

June is here and so is the Dairy Festival. Year after year everybody has fun the first Saturday in June, even the cows! The festival is free as are all of the activities, making it a real treat for families. This is the oldest and biggest one-day event here in Tylertown; you will not want to miss it!

Last month kept us busy with some last-minute projects, including the installation of new doors at the shower house and pool house, adding some fish to the pond and raising the flags at the entrance to the park.

On Mother's Day we had a good time with a brunch featuring fruit, yogurt, muffins, and juice for all of flower for Mom. On Sunday there were a lot of picnics with families around the park. Everyone had a really good time and the weather was great.

Summer holidays will be here before you know it so don't forget to book a campsite early. Memorial weekend was sold out in about a week once we began taking reservations so please plan ahead!

There are a lot of fun things to do here in the area so it's easy to use Tomorrow's Stars as your base and explore local events and attractions. Remember Drive-in theaters? There aren't many left but one close to us is now open for the Summer.

Before or after your delicious meal, how about some culture? Palm Springs Art Museum is the largest cultural institution in the Coachella Valley and includes three locations in Palm Springs and Palm Desert. And, free admission is offered in Palm Springs on Wednesday evenings and every second Sunday. The Palm Desert museum is always free.

For fans of short films, the 21st Annual Palm Springs International ShortFest runs from June 16 - 22. This is one of only a handful of Oscar®-qualifying Festivals in the US.

Meanwhile, we're busily working to improve your experience here with numerous Summer projects. As good as it is, we're committed to always making it better!

So, for those of you looking for a special way to wish Dad a Happy Fathers Day, give some thought to a stay here and take advantage of bargains all around which are only available this time of year.

Happy Fathers Day!

Bruce Howell, Manager

We encourage you to check out our website for this year's Summer activities and then call to make reservations soon so you don't miss out on all of the fun. You may also call our office at 937-324-2267 for information on upcoming activities and events.

Father's Day is right around the corner. Surprise dad by planning a camping trip to Hidden Springs. Take him fishing or canoeing, swim in one of our pools or relax around your campsite. Whichever you prefer, your dad will have something to talk about for years.

Pack up your RV or tent or plan to stay in one of our cozy cabins on the Bogue Chitto River. Come make memories with your family that will last a lifetime.

Winston and Sheila McDaniel, Managers

Happy Birthday Virginia Barron!
