you cannot imagine the fun seeing all the golf carts decorated, the beads, the food and the costumes. The most unusual and unique masks anywhere come out during Mardi Gras.

Work has begun on our new bath house at the front pool. We want to thank Romy Terrell for supervising this work. We will have two new bathrooms and a Snack Bar. Romy and his wife Debra are members and they do so much for Hidden Springs.

We are very excited about the booking of Terry Jo Terrell (Romy Terrell's brother) to do a 3-day Gospel Jamboree. Final details have not been completed but several more Gospel performers will be on hand. This will take place April 25 through April 27.

Since Easter is early this year we have already booked the Easter Bunny for his visit. Along with the Easter Bunny we will have an egg hunt, the jellybean garden and lots of other activities.

Our southern groundhog, General Beauregard Lee, predicted an early Spring and we think it has already started. Temperatures have already been in the 60s and 70s. Good weather always bring out the campers!

Aiko Tanaka

As we wind down the Winter season in April, Comedian Barry Neal, "The Counselor of Love" will appear, along with opening act Aiko Tanaka, who made a guest appearance on The Howard Stern Show and co-starred on The Fast and the Furious: Tokyo Drift.

Meanwhile, we are enjoying hosting a park full of Members and guests who are keeping busy with events both on the park and out in the community. Like most of the country, we were glued to the Clubhouse TV for the Super Bowl. One great thing about rooting for your favorite team with a bunch of friends like this is the awesome supply of food and drink that kept everyone going!

Winner Eleanor Harrison

This year also introduced a new event to the gathering, a Best Wing Contest, won by Eleanor Harrison. Big thanks to everyone who participated!

My second membership meeting held in the social center was attended by a large crowd, which gave me the opportunity to provide updates on completion of projects, future plans, along with introducing Penny Inderwieche as food activities lead. Speaking of Penny, she's taken our food events up a notch, creating new menus for breakfast, lunch and dinners.

You'll also find two new items in the Clubhouse. One is the Business Center Desk, for those of you who are working remote or might just need a quiet place to complete a project. An iMac computer will soon be installed to make the Center more complete.

Second, the Take One/Leave One Book Exchange is now open in the Clubhouse, providing a wide selection of books to choose from.

Have a Happy St. Patrick's Day and Easter Sunday!
