We've had our first triple digit temperatures so Summer has definitely arrived in the desert.

Even though it's heating up, we still have plenty of RVers enjoying the sunny days, beautiful warm evenings and amazing choices of activities available in and around the valley.

This is also time for new life, right here in the park. Don woke up Easter Weekend was a wonderful, fun-filled family time at Hidden Springs.

The weather was beautiful and perfect for our activities. In addition to our children's activities,

Chris Golden with the Easter Bunny

Bunny, egg toss and scavenger hunt, Chris Golden entertained us with a great inspirational concert. During the concert our new employee, James Foster, joined Chris in a song. By the way, James is also known as "The Easter Bunny".

Coming up this month will be our Mother's Day Celebration. On Saturday morning we will have a continental breakfast for all mothers in the park. Every mother camping with us for the weekend will be entered in our drawing for a basket of gifts.

We'll kick off the Summer season with a Memorial Day Weekend Celebration, during which both of our pools will be open. We'll also have activities for all the kids and Hoggwood will perform on Saturday night.

In June our first Jambalaya Cookoff is scheduled. This will be held in conjunction with our Father's Day Celebration and Open House. Open House will be held Saturday, June 18 and a free membership will be given away. Chicken, baked beans and potato salad will be served and of course, jambalaya will be available.

April also took the wraps off our new themes for the 2022 camping season. We had some lucky players at our casino night during Viva Las Vegas Weekend.

Wagon rides are always popular

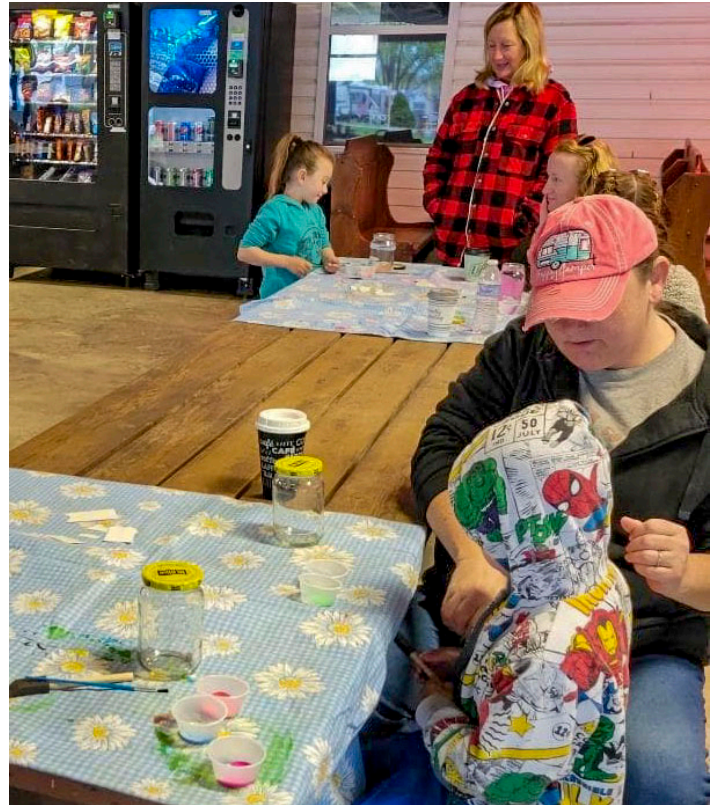

We took some great Vegas games and put our own little twist on them. By the end of the night everyone had a lot of fun, and some people walked out with some great prizes.

We also took the park and turned it into the magical land of Oz during our Wizard of Oz Weekend. From a trivia game to a visit by some of the cast, we found out there's no place like our home at Tomorrow's Stars.

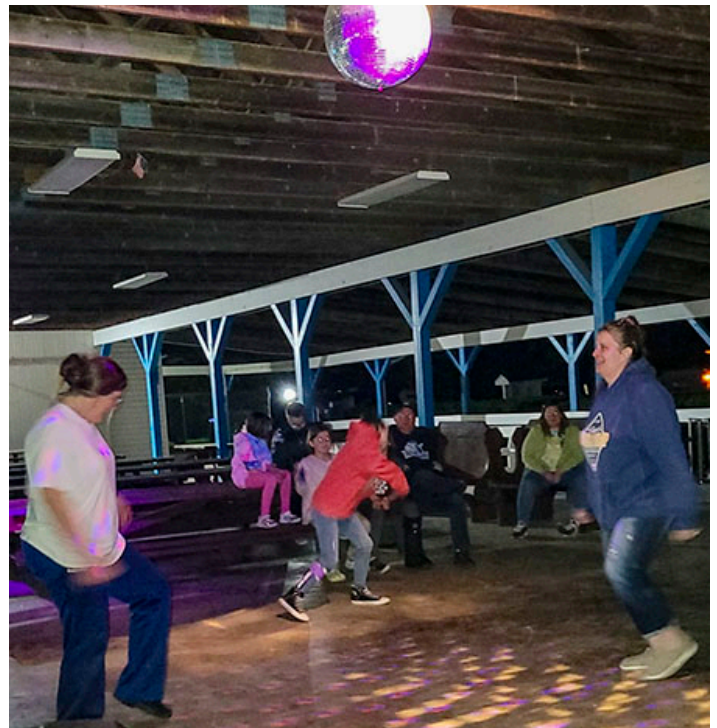

May has a lot of exciting events scheduled for our guests. Redneck Weekend will make its muddy return with even more games to play. We also have our first major holiday of the season as we celebrate Memorial Day. There's always something to do around the park and we can't wait for you to join us.

Our beautiful new front landscaping recently to find a very small nest had been constructed in one of his patio light fixtures by a hummingbird. Sure enough, there was an egg in the nest and pretty soon, the young one popped out of the shell. If you check our Facebook page, you can enjoy a video of this little miracle.

Regardless of the Summer heat, there is still plenty to do in and around the park. Next month, baseball returns to Palm Springs. Palm Springs Power recruits elite collegiate athletes from around the country to play baseball here in the months of June and July. Nightly promotions like Bud and Bud light drafts for just $2 on Tuesdays, Wine Wednesdays featuring porch pounder wines on draft for $4 and Kids Day Saturdays make attending these quality games even more enjoyable.

Downtown Palm Springs is also alive with dining, shopping and entertainment all Summer long. On Thursday evenings, Village Fest features art, entertainment, shopping, and food. Also on Thursdays, Palm Springs Art Museum offers free admission to its wide-reaching and growing permanent collection of over 12,000 objects rooted in modern and contemporary art, architecture, and design that has developed from our unique history, culture, and place.

Along with all the options for adventures available here during Summer, we also offer two ways to stay here at the park without an RV. One is a beautiful apartment and the other is a newly remodeled trailer, both available through Airbnb

We look forward to your visit!
