

October 2024 • Volume XXII, Issue 10

The Scoop is also available online at www.AARVParks.com

Cathedral Palms, CA

35-901 Cathedral Canyon Drive
Cathedral City, CA 92234
760-324-8244

Hidden Springs, MS

16 Clyde Rhodus Road
Tylertown, MS 39667
601-876-4151

Tomorrow's Stars, OH

6716 E. National Road
South Charleston, OH 45368
937-324-2267

Winter season has begun and we are thrilled to say, "Welcome Home" to our returning members and guests..

The 2024-2025 Season is shaping up to be another great Winter here

Our Car Show and Arts/Crafts Weekend was a great success, with a record 62 cars participating.

Vendors for the Arts/Crafts weekend ranged from Jill's Jellies

The crisp air of October has signaled the close of another vibrant Summer camping season..

With the final campfires being extinguished, campers bid farewell

Pergola interior lighting at your oasis in the desert! Our regulars will begin trickling in this month and come November we'll

Nick Kleppinger won Karaoke to Red Beans and Rice, Tamales by Brenda Horn and homemade wind chimes.

Ghosts!

to the long days of sunshine and warm, starry nights. For many outdoor enthusiasts, this is a

Follow us to page 2

Follow us to page 4

Follow us to page 3

The All American RV Club is our growing network of RV Parks and campgrounds that offer significant discounts (most are 50% off their regular rates) to the members of All American RV Parks. There is no book to buy, nothing new to join or any additional cost to be part of this program - it's open to all members in good standing. Just show your current AARVP membership card!

Cathedral Palms, continued from page 1

Beth cleaning the Social Center gazebos

Are you ready for a full moon night in the spa?

Uncle Bob's been busy this Summer!

be alive with activities, campfires and great food and drinks. And speaking of campfires, food and

Since our kitchen tent fell victim to the desert heat and wind over the drinks, the Social Center has an entirely new look! Uncle Bob isn't quite finished with the new pergola but has installed lights around the perimeter and is now adding more lighting to the interior. We think you'll all be delighted with what he's accomplished.

years, a new canvas replacement tent is on the way.

Thankfully the gazebos are made of metal so they just need to be cleaned up; Beth to the rescue! Cathedral Palms has always been known for cleanliness, especially in the buildings and Beth's ongoing efforts are the reason!

For those of you who no longer own an RV, or if you have friends or relatives who'd like to join in the fun, don't forget we have two completely remodeled trailers for rent at reasonable rates. We look forward to seeing you soon!

Bob Coleman, Manager

Extreme Easter egg hunts; from kids in the woods to adults in the woods at night bittersweet transition, but it also heralds the exciting arrival of Winter camping for those seeking new adventures in the colder months.

The Summer camping season, which officially ended in mid-October, was a resounding success. Families, friends and solo adventurers flocked to the campground to soak in the beauty of nature and enjoyed our many activities. Whether hiking, swimming, fishing or simply enjoying the peaceful escape from everyday life, campers made the most of the warm weather and beautiful landscapes.

One of the highlights was the Cardboard Regatta, where campers built makeshift boats out of cardboard and duct tape, competing to see whose creation could stay afloat the longest. The event brought out both laughter and friendly competition as families and teams paddled their way to victory - or sank with grace.

The Extreme Egg Hunt challenged campers to find cleverly hidden the scene of an interactive whodunit. Campers put on their detective hats, following clues and interrogating suspects as they worked to crack the case. It was a weekend filled with intrigue and surprises, perfect for mystery lovers of all ages.

14-18 year olds challenge the Cardboard Regatta

black eggs in the woods at night, adding a fun twist to the traditional egg hunt, drawing in both kids and adults for a day of excitement.

For those looking for a mystery to solve, Murder Mystery Weekend transformed the campground into

As the season wound down in October, the much-anticipated Halloween Spooktacular brought out the spooky spirit in everyone. Families participated in Trick 'r Treating, a costume contest, and a haunted walk through the woods. The campground also hosted a site decorating contest, where campers showcased their creativity by turning their campsites into eerie, Halloween-themed displays. The event was a fitting way to close out the summer season, leaving everyone in high spirits.

Darren Rambo, Manager

Something for everyone in the car show

The weather cooperated and it was a beautiful day to get out and enjoy Fall-like weather.

Couple of Chevrolets from different eras is the assistant manager of the park but works in the office. She is dedicated to Hidden Springs and we wouldn't know what to do without her and husband Dick Whitehead.

2024 will be New Years with Ransaak and fireworks.

Kids Bingo had a large turnout

Work has begun on the Haunted Trail of the Dead. Again we thank Sam and Shery Brock and their family members Alex, Laken and Morgan, for all the work and planning. We have one of the best trails around; not to mention SCARY!!!!

Thanks to Terri Whitehead for the Halloween Carnival. Terri not only

The Carnival is reserved for the weak of heart and those who don't like the trail. Last year we gave out more than 300 treat bags at the Carnival. Games such as Ghost Bowling, Go Fishing and Ring the Witches' hats are some of the favorites.

Even though our Summer season is over we have something big planned every month. Details are being put together for our second Gospel Weekend with Terry Joe Terrell, on November 9.

Next comes the Thanksgiving PotLuck the Saturday after Thanksgiving and the Finale of

Kids Karaoke Winner
Kendall Love

Actually, the season never ends here at Hidden Springs, it just slows down. We wouldn't have it any other way!

Please have a safe and sane Happy Halloween!

Don Mathis, General Manager