This heavily wooded resort lies on the banks of the Bogue Chitto River, one of the most popular recreational zones in the Mississippi-Louisiana area. The resort property boasts several natural springs which are complimented by two outdoor pools. Canoeing and tubing are readily available on the river. Once at the resort, you might wish to use it as a base to visit the many attractions along the Gulf Coast, including the biggest, brightest of them all -- New Orleans! Discover the charm of this incredible city and area where fun has become an art-form!
